LATE GENERAL NEWS.

These were golden words which General Grant uttered to the school children of San Francisco, on their oration to him.

It is a gratifying sight to witness this evidence of educational privileges afforded by this young city. The crowds gathered inside and outside this building indicate that every child of an age to go to school is provided for.

Education is so generally diffused, we may feel assured of the permanency and perpetuity of our institutions. The general danger to our people grows out of ignorance, and this evidence of universality of education is the best guarantee of our future to American principles.

Prof. John M. Longston is to deliver an address at Lincoln Hall, Wilmington, on Tuesday evening next, in which he is expected to make some remarks on the declarations of Fred Douglass on the "Exodus."

The legal investigating committee now in session at Topeka, Kansas, is disposing the charges against Senator Lehigh.

The President has been received at St. Joseph, Mo., and made quite a long, animated and pleasant speech.

The National Republican says:

District Attorney Northrup, of South Carolina, is in Washington. He says that, notwithstanding the two or three recent political murders and attempts at murder, matters are remarkably quiet for that latitude. The only topic that creates any particular excitement at present is the approaching municipal election in Charleston, and the only nature of that event which requires much consideration by the Democrats is how to keep the colored men from voting. The plan most in favor is to make the nominations in the primaries, to which none but white Democrats will be admitted, and then elect in the final manner. There is, however, a split, and a serious one, in the Democracy, and this promises to let the Republicans in in favor of one of the Democratic factions, if not for a considerable time.

Mr. Sprague's trustee was refused admission to Cananah by ex-Governor Sprague, although he was accompanied by an agent of Mr. Charles, trustee of the Sprague estate. The object of the visit was to make an inventory of property in the house, that Mrs. Sprague might indicate what she claimed as her marital property.

Eight thousand dollars was awarded last Monday by J. Dinglerfield, in the Circuit Court at Alexandria, for being accessory to the shooting and murdering of D. C. Thompson, a year ago, when Thompson was shot by Geo. W. Wilson.

Gen. Walker, Supt. of the Census, is rapidly signing at work, getting up statistical information.

The message of President Diaz, recently delivered to the Congress, is considered an excellent statement. It congratulates the country on the auspicious condition of its foreign relations, refers to the increase of railroads, telegraphs, schools, and an improvement in the financial condition of the country.

The European nations Germany, as first as to fighting trim. She is in the field at twenty-four to one, twelve hundred thousand of the line, the reserve, and thewehr. The grand total of the German army is two million two hundred thousand men, exclusive of two hundred thousand not reckoned on the strength, but deducted as garrison troops, and the Landsturm is generally considered, but they are thoroughly trained soldiers, the best in the army. They have a nominal strength of three hundred and a half men, but practically must be decreased to two hundred and even of this total a very proportion is still in process of organization. It is not believed that they could place in the first line more than eight hundred thousand.

Democrats have so arranged it that the people must pay their old taxes notwithstanding the hard times, supposed homestead law. Think

A WARNING TO OUR BUSINESS MEN.

We have information, which we consider reliable, that the Raleigh Air Line Railroad Company are negotiating for the controlling interest in the Carolina Railway Company, and if they have not succeeded they will in a few days, unless our merchants and business men look after the matter. They must not allow themselves to be deceived, for the matter comes to us too straight not to be true, and it should be looked after at once. There is not a moment to be lost.

NOTICE.

Our correspondents must curtail their productions. Let them cultivate brevity, and confine themselves to their subject. Don't wander. Write only on one side of the paper. This advice is given because we are obliged to throw many good articles into the scrap basket on account of length. Within certain restrictions our columns are open to the whole world. Be short, incisive and pointed. This advice is not meant for some of our very excellent contributors, who are models.

City subscribers, who desire the Post must settle with our canvasser when he calls on them. We only charge one dollar a year. All can pay that amount, and those who do not, and will not, cannot have the Post. Every man should have the Republican news, and they can only get reliable information through a Republican paper.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We will give a TWENTY DOLLAR GOLD PIECE to the person who sends us the largest number of paying subscribers within the next three months; or by the 15th day of October, 1879.

Werner, whose many friends will be glad to see him back in his old quarters. Col. Peter C. Hains, Engineer in charge of this Light House District, was at Smithville on Monday and Tuesday last, making a survey of the Bald Head Island surroundings for the purpose of ascertaining whether it was necessary or not to reestablish the Bald Head light. The pilots, merchants and the Collector of the Port have petitioned for the light. Col. Hains went from Smithville to Charleston, S. C.

A LECTURE ON AFRICA.—Mr. Jacob C. Hazley, a native of Sierra Leone on the western coast of Africa, and educated there, has delivered several lectures in this city recently upon Africa, and its products, resources and people. Mr. Hazley is familiar with that part of West Africa, which lies about 10 degrees either side of the equator, and has at different times travelled over the most of Senegambia and Liberia, and the Gold Coast. He is so familiar with that country that his addresses are reliable as well as interesting. He states the product of gold to be $90,000 annually; palm oil, $90,000; palm kernels, $10,000; cane wood, $9,000; ivory $30,000; peanuts $1,500,000; also tea, coffee, butter, hides, gum, wax, arrow root, ginger, mahogany, monkey skins, parrots, and many other things. There are 20 English mail steamers which ply constantly between English and West African ports. We cannot pretend to give anything like any idea of the number of things treated upon by Mr. Hazley in the course of his lecture. He appears in the African costume, and illustrates the customs and habits of the country by specimens of their manufactures, such as snuff palm oil, boxes, coats, meats, baskets, cloths, cayenne, pepper and numerous other things. This gentleman came to this country to visit the Centennial Fair of 1876. He is a merchant in his own country and is desirous of being the means of opening trade between it and our country. His next lecture and panorama exhibiting scenes and scenery in his country will be delivered in the City Hall, on Tuesday evening, the 7th inst, commencing at 8 o'clock; admission free, 10 cts. for adults, and 5 cts. for children.

FIRST "BOOM" FOR STEADMAN.—The Fifth Ward Bucket Company has changed its name from the Fifth Ward Bucket Company, to "Charles M. Steadman Fire Company." This is considered the first boom for Maj. Steadman in his candidacy for Congress. And we suppose from this that the campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress has fairly opened. Next.

DRY GOODS BUSINESS OF THIS CITY.—We shall have something to say about the wants and necessities of this place in dry goods matters in our next issue. We shall review some of the establishments which call themselves first class, as well as give the difference between Wilmington, New York & Baltimore prices, it will astonish our readers and we think will be of value to them.

As the excursion train of colored people, which arrived here about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon from South Carolina, was passing Nichols, S. C., a colored man by the name of Williams, who was on board, jumped off and his forehead struck a crossie, killing him instantly. His father-in-law resides at Nichols, and it was for the purpose of paying him a visit that he made the fatal leap. Williams was identified by his father-in-law at once.

Maj. Geo. B. Chamberlin.—The officer whose name heads this article is a Special Agent of the Post Office Department, who has been operating in the interest of the mail service in North Carolina for several months past. He has corrected many evils; made many arrests, and brought to grief several mail depredators. He has just made an important arrest of one Eli Sanders, a mail rider on the route from Troy to Bostock's Mills, N. C., who it seems has been robbing the mails on his route for the past year or two, and to such an extent that it has been regarded an unsafe means of communicating. But the Major, with his usual skill and tact in such matters, has successfully detected and arrested the culprit, who has since made a full confession of his wicked practice, and no doubt will pay the penalty at Albany, for a term of five years. The people along the line of this robbery are delighted, and speak in the highest praise of the energy and determined action of Maj. Chamberlin in their behalf. The Major knows how to do a job of this kind, as well as any man living.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A serious accident befell three ladies Thursday while driving out late in the evening. The horse attached to the phaeton in which the ladies were riding became frightened and ran rapidly down Front street, where the vehicle collided with a heavy truck in front of Messrs. Adrian & Vullers' store, breaking the straps to the vehicle, which luckily released the horse, which sped rapidly away and the ladies, Mrs. R. H. Grant and her two daughters, Mrs. J. N. Hinton and Mrs. Thos. Shepard, were thrown violently to the ground, Mrs. Grant being badly injured by having her right arm severely sprained and her shoulder dislocated. Mrs. Hinton was very severely bruised. Mrs. Shepard and a little girl who was also in the phaeton escaped injury. Mrs. Grant, the most injured of the party, we are glad to learn is doing very well, and Mrs. Hinton, though severely bruised and cut about the head and face, is not seriously injured. It was quite a miraculous escape from death.

There is a scarcity of wood in the market.

No abatement in interest in the revival at the Fifth Street M. E. Church. Up to Sunday last there had been one hundred and fifty-two conversions, and seventy had joined the church.

A colored man named Atkinson was struck on the head by a block on Thursday while engaged in clearing away the debris from the late fire at the Wilmington Compress. The wound was painful but not serious.

A. W. Reiger, Esq., of Brunswick county, lost by fire his barn and about 2,000 bushels of rice together with the machinery contained in the building. He thinks the fire to have been accidental. His loss will amount to $1,000 over and above his insurance.

George Henry and Catharine Myers, both colored children, indulged in a fistful on Thursday in the southeastern portion of the city. The little girl was getting the best of the affray when the boy struck her on the head with a glass bottle. The blood flowed freely.

FIRE ON THE SOUND.—A two story frame dwelling on the Newkirk place on Middle sound, the property of Mr. James Sprunt of this city, was destroyed by fire on Monday last. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. There was an insurance of $500 on the building which does not begin, so to speak, to cover the loss.

BURGLARY.—Daniel Richardson was arraigned before Justice Hill Thursday on the charge of larceny and burglary. The evidence was conclusive, and unless Richardson can make a better case before the Criminal Court he will no doubt pay the death penalty, which is the punishment meted out to burglars, when caught, by the law.

INCREASE.—The receipts of Cotton at this port during the month of September 1878, were 2,278 bales against 10,066 bales for September of the present year, making a difference in favor of this year's receipts for the month just gone of 7,788. These figures are correct and can be relied upon, as they were furnished by Col. J. L. Cantwell, Secretary of the Exchange.

We learn that a white man by the name of W. A. Burke, died at the tobacco factory on Wednesday morning, October 1st, about 10 o'clock. He was at work a short time before he died. His home, we learn, is in Milton, N. C.

Wilmington is situated 30 miles from Smithville, 6 miles from the seashore, 80 miles from Goldsboro, 160 miles from Weldon, 140 miles from Newbern, 130 miles from Raleigh, 100 miles by river to Fayetteville, 188 miles from Charlotte.

Gen. Robt. B. Elliott, of South Carolina, has been invited to deliver the address at the Industrial State Fair (colored) at Raleigh, in November next, and the General has accepted. Therefore our colored friends may expect a very able and appropriate address. We do not know whether he is much of a granger or not, but he knows how to raise some things.

MENIFICENT GIFT.—Messrs. Williams & Murchison, through their junior partner, who is also President of the Wilmington Compress Company, has presented Col. Roger Moore, Chief of the Fire Department, with their check for $300, to be devoted among the fire department as he deems best as a token of their appreciation of the services of the department during the fire at the Wilmington Compress Company's wharf.

THE CITY.—Mr. Walker Meares who has been engaged for weeks past in taking a census of the city, reports the total population of the city aggregates 17,094, of which 6,716 are whites and 10,388 colored. The population in 1850 was 7,264, of which 3,581 were whites and 3,683 were colored. In 1850 the population was 9,552, of which 5,102 were whites and 4,450 were colored. In 1870 it was 13,146 of which 5,526 were whites and 7,620 were colored. This shows an increase in nine years of 3,558, nearly 21 per cent.

The mortality statistics show a death rate of 14.37 among whites, and 23.51 among colored; the death rate of the entire population being 20.

The two oldest persons are Polly Brack, white, aged 97, and Rainey Corcoran, colored, aged over 100.

There are 247 Pianos, 876 Sewing Machines, 348 Cows, 370 Horses, 197 Hogs, and 1,178 Dogs.

LARGE FIRE, LOSS ABOUT $100,000.—Wednesday morning last about one o'clock the Taylor Press and about 1,300 bales of cotton in the First Fire district were destroyed by fire.

It was one of the two immense Compresses of the Wilmington Compress Company and cost about a year ago $100,000. The fire is supposed to have been accidental. Three sections of the north fire proof warehouse were ruined. The fire department worked for a day and a-half before the fire could be gotten under control. As soon as practicable 1,100 bales of the damaged cotton were removed to Dickinson hill to prevent it from spreading the devouring element. Friday the smouldering embers of the cotton on Dickinson hill were fanned into flames but were speedily extinguished. Sixty workmen are now engaged in pouring water on the burning cotton trying to extinguish it. The loss by fire to the Compress Company and owners of cotton amounted to about $100,000 and is covered by insurance. The loss of the Taylor Press will in no way affect the cotton interest of the city as the Tyler and Champion Presses are in working order and fully capable of pressing the receipts. Before the fire had been extinguished the Compress Company contracted to have the building repaired.

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 29, 1879.

DEAR POST:—I am glad to say that from Col. Dula, of Wilkes, I learned that our party is in a vigorous condition in the mountain country, in favor of a complete reorganization and a full state ticket, with Duxton for Governor. The Republicans of the west will demand a vigorous fight all along the line. I know that we have ambitious and unscrupulous men to oppose, but the tide is against them, and they will have to go down. I will drop you an occasional line and will glad to hear from you. Republicans are full of hope and spirit, and our party is gaining rapidly every day.

The Democrats have collected more taxes in North Carolina since 1868, by 20 per cent, than was collected for previous years. Where is the money? Think of it.
